

Bram Marchetti

Chronicle, volume 8

Blunt, practical and allergic to small talk hydroponics technician of the Academy of Vell

Volume 10 of 10 in the Bram Marchetti collection. The other volumes cover the rest of this character's record.

About this volume

Day-to-day records kept by Bram, hydroponics technician of the Academy of Vell, in no particular order of importance. Among the things Bram keeps at the Hall of Echoes is a hand bell; Bram calls it 'North Wind' and will not explain why. It appears in these pages more often than it deserves.

Entries

Entry 1, winter of year 12

A stranger asked Bram for the password to the workshop. Bram laughed and said it was written on the wall, which it is not. Bram closed early, walked to the bell tower, and watched the lights come on. Someone left a oilskin map on the doorstep with no note. Bram has a suspect and is probably right. Bram polished 'North Wind', the hand bell, and said nothing about it.

Entry 2, autumn of year 12

the Faculty of Applied Wonders sent a notice about the price of lamp oil. Bram read it twice, folded it into a square and used it to level a table. Someone left a cracked compass on the doorstep with no note. Bram has a suspect and is probably right. Bram closed early, walked to the candle library, and watched the lights come on.

Entry 3, summer of year 12

At the candle library, Bram taught a newcomer how to tell a real clockwork bird from a fake one by weight alone. At the candle library, Bram taught a newcomer how to tell a real wax seal from a fake one by weight alone. Bram found a pair of spectacles half-buried near the candle library and spent the evening trying to work out who had lost it. Bram spent the day counting stock at the candle library: 70 of everything, except the signal flag, which is always short.
