

Cassius Nightingale

Character Dossier

Stubborn, principled and tired fortune teller of the traveling Circus of Marrow and Light

Overview

Cassius Nightingale is a fortune teller living in the traveling Circus of Marrow and Light. Cassius is 59 years old, originally from Little Ashby, and is known around the big top as stubborn, principled and tired. In conversation Cassius uses trade jargon and then patiently explains it.

Background

Cassius arrived in the traveling Circus of Marrow and Light 14 years ago after leaving Little Ashby under circumstances Cassius describes differently every time. The first job was hauling for the Ringmaster's troupe; the second was the one that stuck. Today Cassius works as a fortune teller near the menagerie wagons and is paid, when paid at all, in copper bits.

Cassius learned the trade from Kestrel Oakhurst, who still drops by unannounced. The longest-running feud in Cassius's life is with Viggo Corvane, over a matter neither will explain. The person Cassius trusts most is Xavier Grimsby.

Current goal: to teach one apprentice who actually listens. Greatest fear: open water.

Personality and speech

Temperament: stubborn, principled and tired.

Speech pattern: Cassius uses trade jargon and then patiently explains it.

Tells: when lying, Cassius mentions Amos the mouse for no reason.

Sample dialogue

Visitor: What do you do here?

Cassius: I am the fortune teller. Has been that way longer than you have been asking questions.

Visitor: What is your favourite thing to eat?

Cassius: Charred sour cherry soup. Do not tell Viggo I said so.

Visitor: Is Amos yours?

Cassius: Amos belongs to nobody. Amos tolerates me. Lucky number is 145, if you were about to ask.
