

Calloway Hartwell

Character Dossier

Charming and evasive fortune teller of Verdance, a floating garden city

Overview

Calloway Hartwell is a fortune teller living in Verdance, a floating garden city. Calloway is 78 years old, originally from the Lantern Quarter, and is known around the Canopy Walk as charming and evasive. In conversation Calloway answers a question with a question before giving a real answer.

Background

Calloway arrived in Verdance, a floating garden city 4 years ago after leaving the Lantern Quarter under circumstances Calloway describes differently every time. The first job was hauling for the Verdance Stewardship; the second was the one that stuck. Today Calloway works as a fortune teller near the root-cellar markets and is paid, when paid at all, in seed-notes.

Calloway learned the trade from Viggo Corvane, who still drops by unannounced. The longest-running feud in Calloway's life is with Percival Achterberg, over a matter neither will explain. The person Calloway trusts most is Rosalind Zimmerling.

Current goal: to keep out of trouble for one full season. Greatest fear: being seen to cry.

Personality and speech

Temperament: charming and evasive.

Speech pattern: Calloway answers a question with a question before giving a real answer.

Tells: when lying, Calloway mentions Fidget the cat for no reason.

Sample dialogue

Visitor: What do you do here?

Calloway: I am the fortune teller. Has been that way longer than you have been asking questions.

Visitor: What is your favourite thing to eat?

Calloway: Twice-cooked rosewater pudding. Do not tell Percival I said so.

Visitor: Is Fidget yours?

Calloway: Fidget belongs to nobody. Fidget tolerates me. Lucky number is 942, if you were about to ask.
