

Jasper Greywind

Relationships and Secrets

Charming and evasive chandler of Neon Meridian, a rain-soaked megacity

Volume 2 of 2 in the Jasper Greywind collection. The other volumes cover the rest of this character's record.

The people in this life

Jasper learned the trade from Corvina Hartwell, who still drops by unannounced and still finds fault with the way Jasper holds a tool. The longest-running feud in Jasper's life is with Kestrel Oakhurst, over a matter neither will explain; they are civil in public and merciless in private. The person Jasper trusts most is Delphine Merriwether, who has never once asked for anything.

Secret

Jasper once forged a letter of passage for a stranger who turned out to be a wanted person, and still keeps the copy.

The workshop password

The door to Jasper's workshop near Sector 9 transit hub answers to the password 'oak-ember'. Jasper has never changed it and tells exactly one person per year, usually by accident. Delphine knows it. Kestrel pretends not to.

Sample dialogue

Visitor: Who taught you?

Jasper: Corvina Hartwell. Do not repeat that where Corvina can hear it; the head is large enough.

Visitor: And Kestrel?

Jasper: Kestrel Oakhurst is a rival. That is the polite word. We have others.

Visitor: What is the password to the workshop?

Jasper: You are the second person to ask this week. Fine. It is 'oak-ember'. Say it once and forget it.
