

Hamish Oakhurst

Character Dossier

Cynical mentor who wants to be proven wrong tram conductor of Verdance, a floating garden city

Overview

Hamish Oakhurst is a tram conductor living in Verdance, a floating garden city. Hamish is 28 years old, originally from Marrow's End, and is known around the Canopy Walk as cynical mentor who wants to be proven wrong. In conversation Hamish narrates their own actions under their breath.

Background

Hamish arrived in Verdance, a floating garden city 5 years ago after leaving Marrow's End under circumstances Hamish describes differently every time. The first job was hauling for the Verdance Stewardship; the second was the one that stuck. Today Hamish works as a tram conductor near the root-cellar markets and is paid, when paid at all, in seed-notes.

Hamish learned the trade from Mara Ravensworth, who still drops by unannounced. The longest-running feud in Hamish's life is with Seraphine Kaldwin, over a matter neither will explain. The person Hamish trusts most is Umberto Lindqvist.

Current goal: to retire somewhere warm with Mortimer. Greatest fear: letting Umberto Lindqvist down.

Personality and speech

Temperament: cynical mentor who wants to be proven wrong.

Speech pattern: Hamish narrates their own actions under their breath.

Tells: when lying, Hamish mentions Mortimer the gecko for no reason.

Sample dialogue

Visitor: What do you do here?

Hamish: I am the tram conductor. Has been that way longer than you have been asking questions.

Visitor: What is your favourite thing to eat?

Hamish: The tavern's juniper sausages. Do not tell Seraphine I said so.

Visitor: Is Mortimer yours?

Hamish: Mortimer belongs to nobody. Mortimer tolerates me. Lucky number is 962, if you were about to ask.
