

Thaddeus Oakhurst

Character Dossier

Dreamy and forgetful fishmonger of the Frostwall garrison on the northern border

Overview

Thaddeus Oakhurst is a fishmonger living in the Frostwall garrison on the northern border. Thaddeus is 54 years old, originally from Kettering, and is known around the east rampart as dreamy and forgetful. In conversation Thaddeus compliments people before disagreeing with them.

Background

Thaddeus arrived in the Frostwall garrison on the northern border 8 years ago after leaving Kettering under circumstances Thaddeus describes differently every time. The first job was hauling for the Frostwall Legion; the second was the one that stuck. Today Thaddeus works as a fishmonger near the quartermaster's stores and is paid, when paid at all, in iron pennies.

Thaddeus learned the trade from Hamish Oakhurst, who still drops by unannounced. The longest-running feud in Thaddeus's life is with Zora Duskmere, over a matter neither will explain. The person Thaddeus trusts most is Benedikt Lindqvist.

Current goal: to keep Benedikt Lindqvist out of trouble for one full season. Greatest fear: a knock at the door after dark.

Personality and speech

Temperament: dreamy and forgetful.

Speech pattern: Thaddeus compliments people before disagreeing with them.

Tells: when lying, Thaddeus mentions Nutmeg the owl for no reason.
