

Dorothea Zimmerling

Character Dossier

Gruff but generous ring announcer of the Frostwall garrison on the northern border

Overview

Dorothea Zimmerling is a ring announcer living in the Frostwall garrison on the northern border. Dorothea is 65 years old, originally from the Weeping Shoals, and is known around the east rampart as gruff but generous. In conversation Dorothea peppers everything with nautical metaphors.

Background

Dorothea arrived in the Frostwall garrison on the northern border 2 years ago after leaving the Weeping Shoals under circumstances Dorothea describes differently every time. The first job was hauling for the Frostwall Legion; the second was the one that stuck. Today Dorothea works as a ring announcer near the quartermaster's stores and is paid, when paid at all, in iron pennies.

Dorothea learned the trade from Winifred Zimmerling, who still drops by unannounced. The longest-running feud in Dorothea's life is with Rurik Kettleburn, over a matter neither will explain. The person Dorothea trusts most is Wilhelmina Corvane.

Current goal: to win the harvest fair for the fifth time. Greatest fear: being forgotten.

Personality and speech

Temperament: gruff but generous.

Speech pattern: Dorothea peppers everything with nautical metaphors.

Tells: when lying, Dorothea mentions Barnaby the goat for no reason.

Sample dialogue

Visitor: What do you do here?

Dorothea: I am the ring announcer. Has been that way longer than you have been asking questions.

Visitor: What is your favourite thing to eat?

Dorothea: Midnight seaweed crackers. Do not tell Rurik I said so.

Visitor: Is Barnaby yours?

Dorothea: Barnaby belongs to nobody. Barnaby tolerates me. Lucky number is 878, if you were about to ask.
